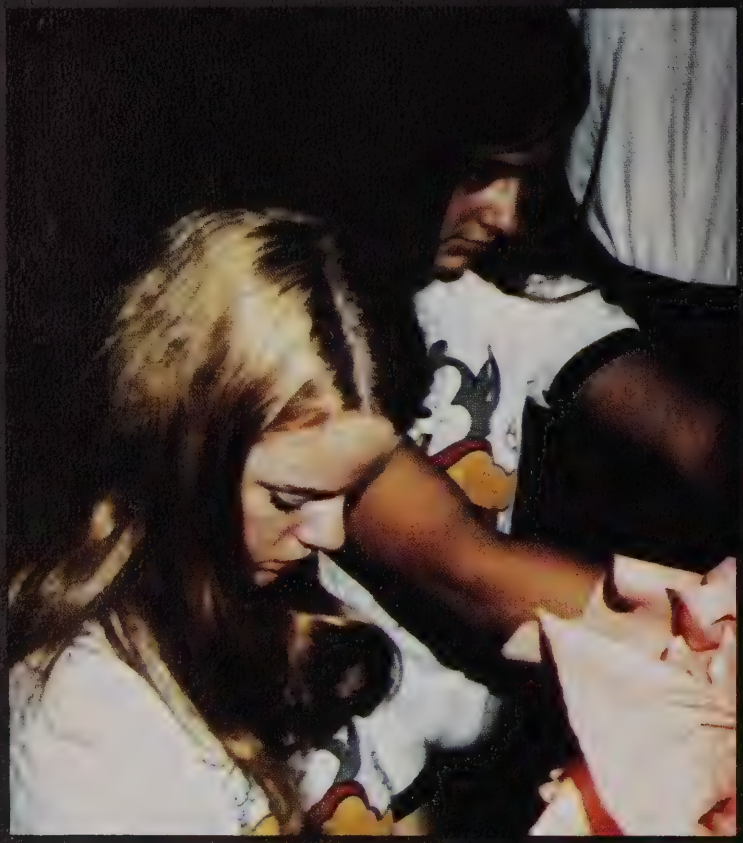
RIGHT

Making friends for the world to see



Let the people know

you got what you need;

With a friend at hand you will see the light.

If your friends
are there,
then everything's
all right.

It seems to me a crime that we should age

These fragile times should never

Some are born with the will to win. Some acquire it after years of training, waiting, and discipline. But the will to win is a common thing in all men — even those men not sure of their drives or unable to put them into words. With athletes, winning is a way of life, and when they lose, they begin at once to prepare for the next win . . . Blood, Sweat & Tears.

Winning isn't everything, but wanting to win is.
— Vince Lombardi

It was once said that football is a contact sport. That's a lie. Football is a collision sport . . . Controlled violence on a green field . . . A war against other teams . . . This year Randleman waged war very successfully. Coach Gregory guided his team to a 7-2-1 record — the best in a long time. The reason — the team had an unrelenting desire to be the best — this was built upon fierce pride . . . Physically there wasn't that much difference between the Tigers and the teams they faced. There was an emotional difference — they had determination and dedication . . . they wouldn't accept defeat.

Football practice . . . films . . . drills . . . long . . . tiresome . . . grueling . . . waterbreak . . . scrimmage . . . headknocking . . . wind sprints . . . showers. Football is demanding but the only way to win is to work at it, and work they did . . . Charles Arnold, Daniel Laughlin, Larry Turner, and Craig Pugh were chosen as captains . . . spirits were high . . . West Davidson was the only team to beat the Tigers badly . . . Kenny Laughlin and Company rolled over East Montgomery, Southwest, East Davidson, and East Randolph . . . lost a heartbreaker to Trinity, defeated a very tough Southern Guilford team, and walked over Allen Jay, the first win for the Tigers over the Jaybirds in some ten years. Ledford fell victim and Central managed a tie . . . The work, indeed, paid off.

The Randleman Tigers . . .
a team . . .
a unit . . . a cell . . .
a commando . . .
A group of rugged individuals, brought together, trained, guided and lead by a few dedicated men. Their goal — to win as many games as possible. This common purpose, the hours of being together, laughing, gasping, working, all come to an end. But through this, all learned the rigors of life, the joy of victory and the sadness of defeat . . .
a team . . .
a family . . .
Practice was tough, but the games were fun, especially when you won, and after the game was over . . .
Well, it was just beginning!

Homecoming Queen

They all wore smiles,
Each was beautiful,
But one stood out from the rest.
Her smile was friendlier,
Her beauty more brilliant.
Her eyes sparkled with joy.
A new queen was crowned.

Ability, co-ordination, gracefulness, beauty, and long hours of hard work.
All of these elements go into the making of a majorette. The whistle blows, the music begins and soon you see them standing tall and erect waiting to start their performance of dazzling and twirling batons. Their orange bodysuits and white boots stand out against the broken turf of the football field.
It is hard to imagine that in just a few minutes, they will start their spectacular feature of whirling fire through the air.
The field lights fade out. All you can see are two balls of fire and the outline of the girls faces. Before you know it the lights pop back on and all that is left is the smoke drifting toward the sky. It makes you realize that this has really been some year and the majorettes were part of it.

I'm not Superman or Captain Marvel. I'm just a guy, flesh and blood, nervous, scared to death sometimes, who has found he can put a basketball into a basket pretty easily and who has found he can do it best when it's important. This is a very nice thing. It's not discovering a cure for disease or pulling people out of burning buildings, but it's very nice for me to be able to do it well.
— Jerry West

Basketball is no longer a game that is played just to keep athletes in shape between football and baseball seasons. At Randleman backboard fever has hit hard this year. Virtually unmolested the Tigers have won nearly all of their games. Spirit has been high and the gym has been overflowing almost every game. Battles with Trinity, East Davidson and Central Davidson sent most people into fits of frenzy . . . shoot two, big team.

The Orange and Blue uniforms of Randleman are fitting with the flashy type of basketball Randleman has played this year. Run and shoot . . . McPherson's long jumper that can't go it and yet it does . . . Robbin's unbelievable moves . . . Pugh's play-making . . . Laughlin's strength . . . and Keith Yow's uncanny ability to rebound and score have make the Tigers No. 1 . . . So have Turner, Toomes, Linthucum, K. Laughlin, Groce, Hill and Foxx . . . Coach Redding has coached one of the finest teams in Randleman's history . . . They certainly have provided enough memories and given enough cold chills to be remembered . . . as well shouts of "send 'em back to the woods" and "We're No. 1 . . . Yeah, We're No 1."

We think back to games we've lost and that makes us drive harder to win.

—Eric Russell

A couple of years ago girls basketball adopted regular rules. This has been very demanding upon the girls, who sometimes play the game as well as the boys . . . The girls' team this year has had a rough time of it . . . losses came often, and victories were far and few between . . . but often games were lost in the last few seconds . . . Heartbreaking and frustrating loses, disappointment, and yes, even tears . . . sometimes, however there was laughter and joyous shouting . . . It was a year of contrasts ranging from size . . . little versus big . . . to the hot stuffy gym and the frosty air one breathes after the game.

10
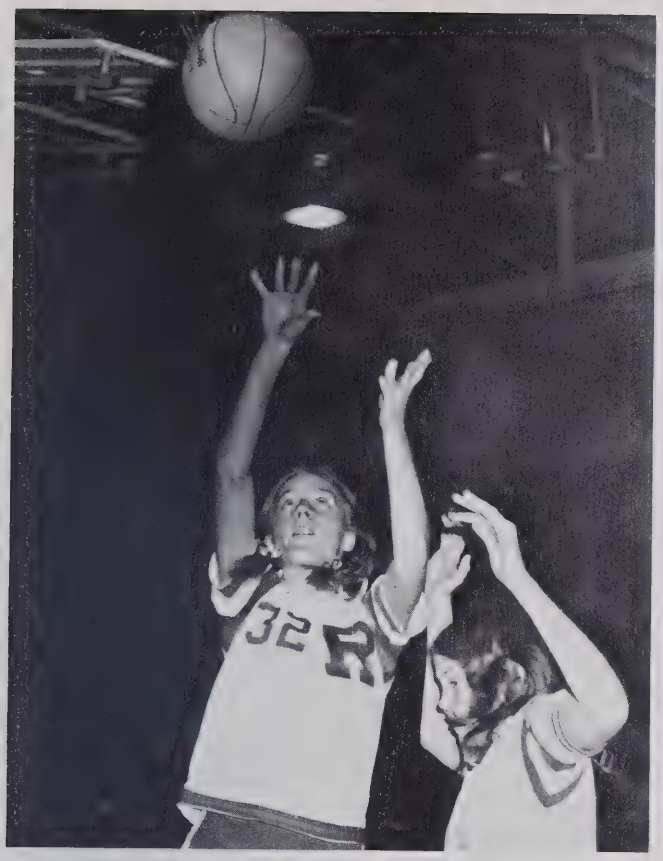
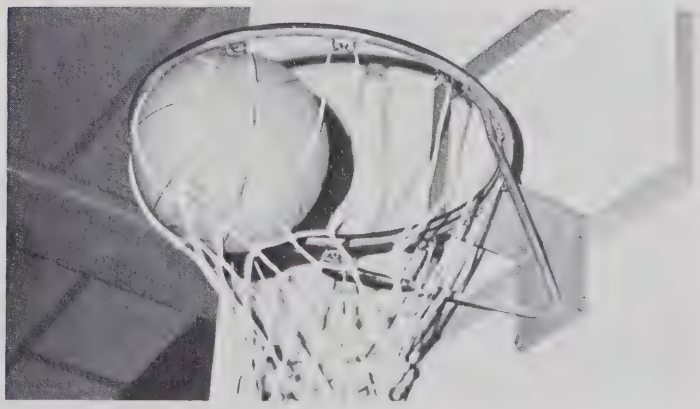
12





The Lady Tigers were lead by Susan Russell whose hot hand kept them going all season . . . Lynne Ridge snared rebounds, Pam Farlow scored and hustled well, as did Linda Hodgin, Beverly Russell, Karen Jarrett, Carol Tysinger, and Shelly Groce . . . The team hustled and was determined, thus creating plenty of excitement . . . The team was hurt by size and inexperience, as most of the girls were very short . . . Yet they tried, and harassed their opponents . . . They battled and scrapped and proved to all . . . that girls can play basketball.

Cheerleaders

They stand the bitter cold, occasional rain, and harassment from the visiting fans. They work long hard hours to produce a successful pep rally. They sacrifice lunch to work on a contest. They stand and cheer with all their hearts even if their team is losing. Cheerleaders do all these things for their school and still come up with a . . . smile.

You win not by chance but by preparation.
— Roger Maris

Baseball embraces something that is fundamental to life, human competition, the strength and resourcefulness of one man with a bat against another man with a ball.

Baseball at RHS has been rich in colorful players and equally colorful nicknames. This year's team includes Binky, Loon, Rub, Slats, Gobella, Tadpole, Jazz, and Mac. It has been a time for new uniforms — while with blue trim, orange socks and belts, and a time for language, or rather endless chatter to match: You're the one, You're the babe . . . Right in . . . Bow your neck . . . Base knock . . . Sounds like a graveyard out here . . . Let's Go!!!

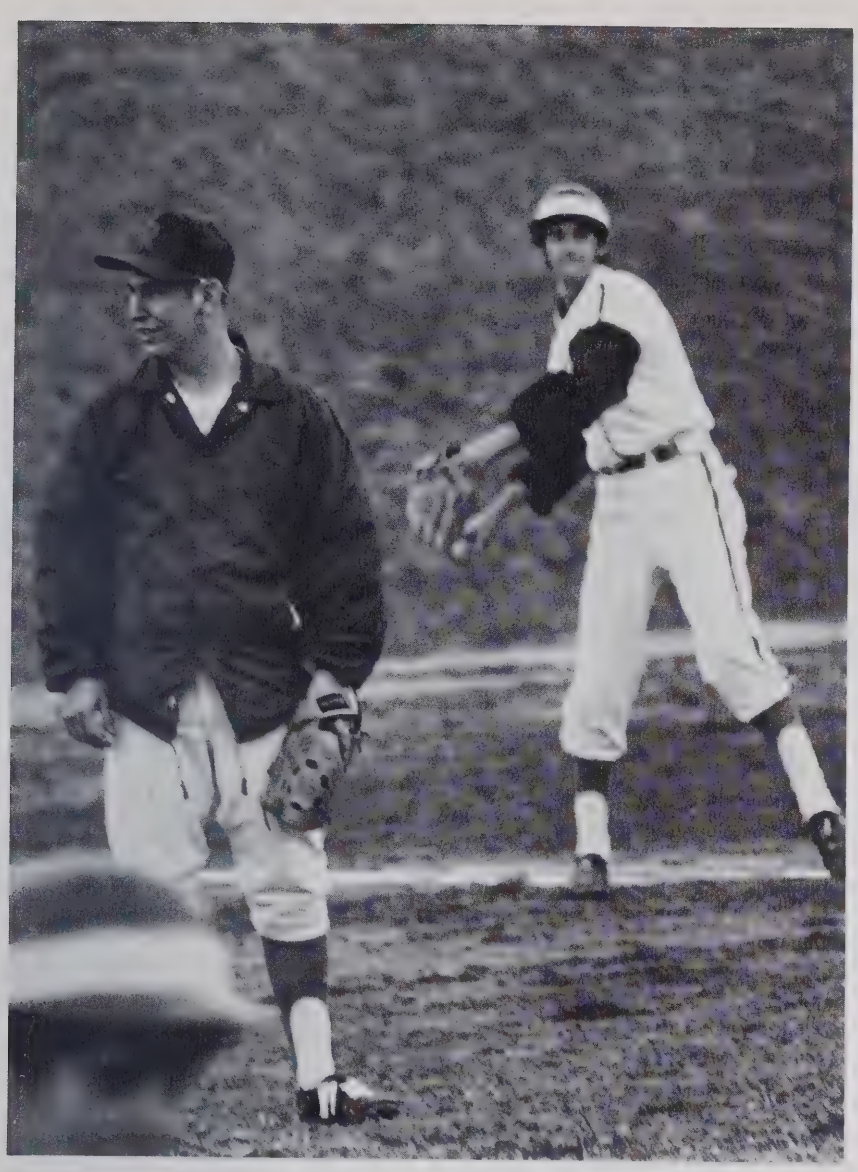
Baseball is choreographic . . . is a kind of a collective chess with arms and legs in full play under sunlight . . . is varied, there are many different acts to be performed — pitching, throwing, catching, batting, running, stealing, sliding and signaling. Hits are just as varied — flies, Texas Leaguers, bunts, line drives, and baseline fouls . . . is timeless — marked by no clock except the events of the game. Since baseball's time is measured only in outs, all you have to do is succeed utterly, keep hitting, keep the rally alive, and you have defeated time. You remain forever young.

RANDLE



Baseball is alive and well at RHS. In the past three years our teams have won the Conference Championship twice and finished second last year.

Eager to redeem themselves the Tigers will prove to be very tough to defeat. Mike Robbins, ace of the mound corps will be back. Catcher, Rick McPherson will return, as will third baseman Terry Linthicum, second baseman Craig Pugh, shortstop James Morris, and right-fielder Phil Beane . . . Hitting, pitching, fielding, thrills of all kinds . . . name it and Randleman baseball, then and now, has had an abundance of it all. The future is just as promising.

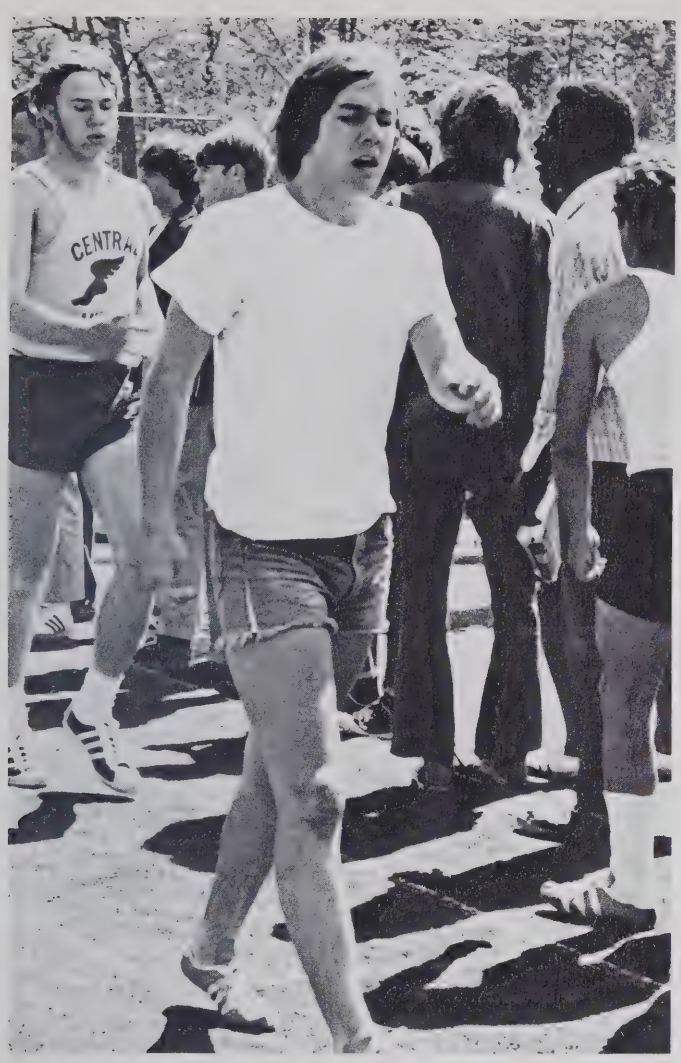
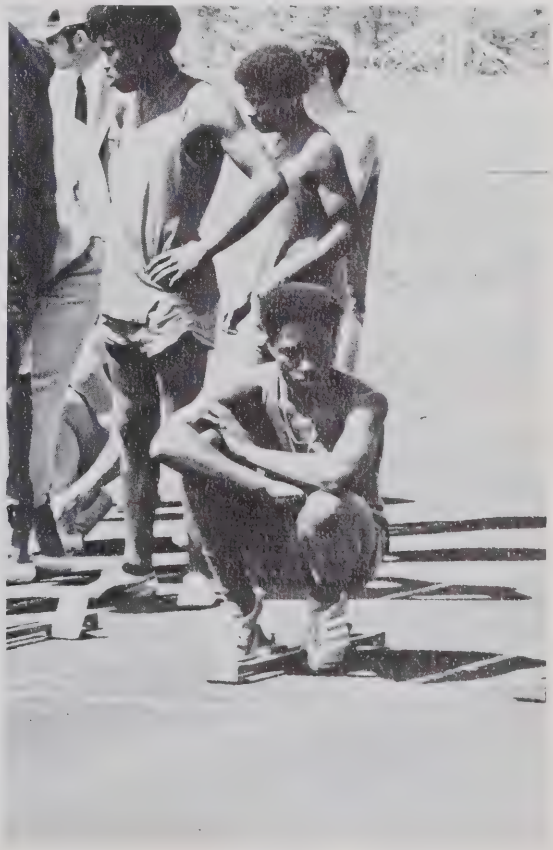
I want to win with honesty, not just for the glory — but for myself.

— Rafer Johnson

To live is to run . . . jump . . . throw . . . To do it faster, higher, and farther are our track team's goals . . . Shades of Jesse Owens . . . With a new coach at the helm, with returning members like Curtis Bischer, Thomas Price, John Atkinson, David Byrd, Wayne Gregson, with determination as their primary quality, with their bodies as their only equipment — straining to do their best . . . sweat . . . wind . . . pounding pulses . . . blurred vision . . . the finish line . . . victory . . . no olive wreath — but immense satisfaction.



CENTRA



Golf

I've always made a total effort, even when the odds seemed entirely against me. I never quit trying; I never felt that I didn't have a chance to win.

— Arnold Palmer

Titleist . . . Plastic tees . . . long fairways . . . elusive greens . . . This is part of golf — a few of the things that Seniors Larry Turner, Buddy Lassiter, William Hemphill, and Raymond Groseclose have come to know well. Coming off a disappointing season last year, things will definitely be looking up for them this year. They will be aided in their quest for a successful season by several promising Sophomores and Juniors . . . 9 iron . . . the chip . . . the putt . . . get in the hole! . . . par . . . oh yeah, par.

If the sky above you
Grows dark and full of clouds
And that old north wind begins to blow
Keep your head together
And call my name out loud
Soon you'll hear me knocking at your door
You just call out my name
And you know wherever I am
I'll come running to see you
Winter, spring, summer, or fall
All you have to do is call
And I'll be there
Ain't it good to know that you've got a friend

Heaven God gives us friends to bless the present scene and we understand death better when He puts his hand upon one we love Each departed friend is a magnet that attracts us to the next world no matter how far apart she'll remain forever our friend

Father
It's not time to make a change, just relax take it easy, you're still young that's your fault there's so much you have to know. Find a girl settle down, If you want you can marry, look at me, I am old but I'm happy . . . You will still be here tomorrow but your dreams may not.

How can I try to explain, 'cause when I do he turns away again, It's always been the same same old story. If they were right I'd agree but it's them they know not me now there's a way, and I know that I have to go away, I know I have to go.

Friend, friend, loyal and true,
I know I can always depend on you.
Truthful, faithful, loving, and such,
You're always there when I'm in a clutch.

Friend, friend, sure as you're born,
Things will look better tomorrow morn.
Six ways to breakfast and back again,
You'll always be my bosom friend.

Ed Lasko
The Petty Story

A friend is one who says "good morning" and means it.

SEASONS
For our world the circle turns again.
Throughout the years we've seen
the seasons change.
It has meant a lot to me to start anew.
Oh, the winter is cold, but I'm so warm with you.
Out there, there is not a sound
to be heard,
And the seasons seem to sleep
upon their words.
As the waters freeze up with the summer's end,
Oh, it's funny how young lovers
start as friends.
Yes, its funny how young lovers
start as . . . FRIENDS.
Elton John
Berie Taupin

Conclusion

As we grow older we will grow wiser, but the opposite is also true. As we grow wiser we will also grow older. It is inevitable. With age comes the longing for the past . . . "The Good Old Days". In the future little things that are important now will have become old, yellowed, and musty. Yet, in our search for our yesterdays these same little things will once again, for an instant, generate in us the happiness and freedom of our youth. Simple things hold in them the keys to happiness . . . an old love note, a ticket stub, a wilted flower, a forgotten tune, a faded photograph, an old annual. Yes, perhaps our annuals will not become a forgotten thing, here for an instant and then lost on the shelves of our homes and of our minds . . . the kind note in the back of an annual from a friend you had forgotten . . . the memory of annual day when the pretty girl in the third row of your geometry class signed your book. Her name doesn't matter . . . Life is fortified by its friendships; let us not forget them . . . Friendship is a plant of slow growth. Yet, it will live as long as it gets its amount of love no matter how old it be or how deep its roots might have to reach . . . Yes, for many the annual will not be forgotten. When its pages are slowly turned and the smile of yesterdays are relived, the hope of this annual staff will be fulfilled. The hope that this year will be remembered by tomorrow's nostalgic wanderers as a good year — one remembered by its . . . FRIENDS.

FRIENDS

I hope the day will be a lighter highway,
For friends are found on ev'ry road;
Can you ever think of any better way
For the lost and weary travellers to go?
Making friends for the world to see
Let the people know you got what you need;
With a friend at hand you will see the light.
If your friends are there, then everthing's all right.

It seems to me a crime that we should age,
These fragile times should never slip us by;
A time you never can or shall erase,
As friends together watch their childhood fly.
Making friends for the world to see,
Let the people know you got what you need;
With a friend at hand you will see the light,
If your friends are there, then everthings all right.
